OFFICE OF THE CIRCLE INSPECTOR OF EDUCATION, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 4th January 1923.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders will be received by the Circle Inspector of Education, Bangalore, for the supply, by contract of articles of furniture and appliances required for the use of Departmental Schools in the Circle.

2. Tenders must be subscribed "Tenders for the supply of furniture for the Departmental Schools," and must be accompanied by a Treasury Receipt for having deposited a sum of Rs. 100 (Rs. one hundred) only as earnest money in a Government Treasury. No cash will be received at the Circle Inspector's Office but only treasury receipts. This tender deposit of Rs. 100 will be returned immediately after the tenders are disposed of or held as part payment for the security required under clause 6.

3. Tenders will be received at the Office of the Circle Inspector of Education, Bangalore (Basavangudi), till 5 P.M. on 31st January 1923, after which date no tender will be accepted.

4. Tenders should clearly show the rates at which the different articles can be supplied at the different schools for which supplies have to be made. Size and descriptions of the articles are given below. Only Mysore Teak well-seasoned should be used in manufacturing the articles. Each article supplied under contract should bear the indeliable stamp of the manufacturer's name or Trade Mark, if any, which should be mentioned in the tender. The number of each article required is only approximate and is liable to alteration, if necessary.

5. Tenders will be opened by the Circle Inspector of Education, at 3 P.M. in his office, Basavangudi, Bangalore, on the 1st February 1923, in the presence of such tenderers as may choose to attend.

6. The names of the successful tenders will be notified in due course on the notice board of the Office of the Circle Inspector of Education, and each such tenderer will be required to produce a treasury receipt for having deposited one-tenth of the value of the articles to be supplied as security and execute an agreement for the due fulfilment of the contract within fifteen days of the acceptance of the tender, in default of which, his tender will be considered cancelled and his earnest money forfeited.

7. The agreement will state that the articles undertaken to be supplied by the contractor will be supplied before the 30th April 1923, failing which a penalty of a sum not exceeding Rs. 10 a day for every day of delay after the 30th April 1923 will be levied at the discretion of the Circle Inspector of Education. In cases of serious defaults, the security deposit may be forfeited.

8. The agreement will further state that a guarantee of soundness of each article supplied will be given by the contractor concerned for a period of not less than two summers after the delivery of the articles and that the contractor undertakes to make good all losses and damages that may be caused owing to bad materials or owing to bad workmanship in making the articles. Half the security referred to in clause 6 will be returned to him and the other half retained as security against him for this period.

9. No contract should be sublet.

10. In all matters relating to the quality and soundness of the articles supplied the decision of the Circle Inspector of Education will be final.

11. The Circle Inspector of Education reserves to himself the right of accepting in part or wholly or of rejecting any tender without assigning any reason therefor. The earnest money deposited by those whose tenders are rejected will be authorised to be withdrawn from the Treasury on refund bill in Form No. Fl. 196.

12. After the expiry of the guarantee period, the security for soundness of articles will be similarly repaid by refund bills.
